GERMAN ZION'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.

This church edifice is on the corner of Seventh and Weidman Streets. It has English services Sunday evenings, Sunday-school at 1.30 P.M., prayer-meeting on Wednesday evening, and teachers' meeting on Friday evenings. Rev. J. M. Deitzler, now of Annville, has been its pastor for many years.

THE MORAVIAN CHURCH.

For the early history of the Moravian Church in Lebanon our readers are referred to the sketch of old Hebron Church, under the head of South Lebanon township. What follows is simply a continuation of that history: The successive pastors of the Moravian Church in this vicinity were John H. Herzur, Adolph Meyer, Anton Wagner, Henry Beck, Godfried Engle, George Meiser, Melchior Schmidt, John Jorde, Johann Richard Utley, John Phillip Menser, Franz Boehler, Andrew Langardt, John Michael Zahm, Rev. Hepner, Christian Bader, John N. Michler, Lorentz Bage, Gottlieb Senseman, John Rothe, Philip Jacob Rizenbach, Christopher Peter, John Molther, John Frederick Fritz, who went to Bethlehem in 1801; 1801, Nathaniel Braun; 1803, Charles Gottlieb Blech; 1804, Lewis Hulbener; 1813, Theodore Shulz; 1816, Abraham Reinke; 1819, Charles Gottlieb Blech; 1827, G. F. Troeger; 1836, Lewis F. Lambert; 1837, Henry Simon. In 1844 there was no resident minister, but from 1845 the church was served occasionally in preaching and the administration of sacraments by Rev. Peter Wolle, during which period many Moravian families came to this neighborhood, and the necessity was felt of removing the place of worship to Lebanon borough, a distance of one mile and a quarter from the one at Hebron. A request was sent to the Synod at Bethlehem in 1847 that it might again send a resident preacher here, and Rev. William Leonard was appointed to preach at Hebron, Heidelberg, and at Witmer's school-house, on the Horse-Shoe turnpike. On Dec. 19, 1847, the congregation was reorganized, and on June 4, 1848, the corner-stone of a new church edifice laid on the corner of Mulberry Street and Spring Alley, Revs. Samuel Reinke and Julius Beckler officiating. On Dec. 16 and 17, 1848, it was consecrated. At the close of this year the congregation had thirty communicant members. The succeeding pastors were: 1849, Christian Lichtenhaeler; 1851, Edmund de Schweinitz; 1853, Theophilus Wanderling; 1860, William Leonard; 1866, Edmund Oerter; 1870, E. P. Greider; 1873, J. Max Hark; 1876, Walter Jordan; 1880, L. P. Clewell, the present incumbent. He was born in 1843 at Nazareth, in Northampton County; has been in the ministry sixteen years, of which seven (from 1873 to 1880) was at Graceham Church, Frederick County, Md., the oldest Moravian Church in that State. The parsonage was built in 1852 and 1853, and occupied June 2d of latter year.

The church was destroyed by fire on the 29th of July, 1858, and in October following the corner-stone of the second (built in borough) church edifice laid. It was consecrated June 5, 1859, by Bishops Samuel Reinke, Goepp, and Edmund de Schweinitz, and Rev. Hogen, at which time the Litiz choir of Lancaster were present. On Monday following sixty-seven communicants participated in the services.

In May, 1860, a new organ was purchased. In 1866 the preaching-places at Heidelberg and Bethel were abandoned, and services thereafter held only in Lebanon and at Horse-Shoe pike. The old stone church at Hebron was abandoned in 1848, when the new one was completed in the borough of Lebanon. The former is now used as a barn. It was built over a century ago, and in its sacred walls preaching was regularly maintained for three-quarters of a century.

THE LEBANON ACADEMY,

although in operation years prior thereto, was incorporated by act of the Legislature Feb. 8, 1816, with an appropriation of two thousand dollars. Its first trustees were the Rev. William Heater, Rev. William Hendel, Rev. William G. Ernst, Rev. Philip Gloninger, John Andrew Shulze, Peter Shindel, Samuel Light, John Harrison, Edward Godwin, Dr. George Reidenaur, Dr. Duncan King, Philip Greenawalt, Philip Wolfersberger, Jr., Peter Lineaweaver, Abraham Doebler, John Batdorf, and Jacob B. Weidman. The building was erected by contract for two thousand eight hundred and forty dollars. Rev. Mr. Todd, of Harrisburg, was the first teacher, commencing Oct. 1, 1826. The terms for the first session were: for primary scholars, two dollars per quarter, besides the cost of wood in cold weather and six cents for contingent expenses; for the classics, eight dollars per quarter. Mr. Todd was succeeded in 1828 by Joseph N. Chipman, of Vermont, and the latter by C. G. Ridgely in 1829. On his resignation, in 1830, Rev. William G. Ernst took charge, assisted by Eugene McGivoney. In 1834, John C. McKinney was elected, and taught two years. The school was not flourishing, and Rev. Mr. Ernst was induced again to take charge, assisted by his son, John Ernst. The school continued in their hands until 1839. In the mean time another select school for boys had been organized in Lebanon, taught at this time by J. H. Kluge. In 1841 a union of the two schools was effected. Mr. Kluge took charge of the academy and held it until 1852, when the building was leased to the board of public schools and it became Lebanon High School,—one of the conditions being that the classics should be taught,—and Mr. Kluge was retained as principal at a salary of four hundred dollars. He was elected county superintendent in 1854, and was succeeded by J. M. Titzel. After him Dr. Robert McCormick, Samuel B. Light, and Cyrus Boyer taught successively until 1868, when the present principal, W. J. Burnside, was elected.

INTRODUCTION

This work is an attempt to name all wills and most administrations found in the 62 Tennessee counties where such records, through 1861, have survived. Each entry is as follows:

Name of deceased; year of the probate, or of first mention of the estate; where the original record can be found; county symbol (see key to county symbols).

Identification of where the record can be found is represented by the following symbols:

abl	Administrators bonds & letters
Alpha	No page #s--in alphabetical order
as	Administrators settlements
db	Deed book
eb	Estate book
gs	Guardian settlements
ib	Inventory book
lr	Loose records
lw	Loose wills
mr	Miscellaneous records
rb	Record book
wb	Will book
#	Page # is from a published book--see bibliography

This symbol is followed by the letter or number of the record book, and then the page number. If the book has pagination errors we have placed an asterisk (*) after the page number to indicate this is the second page of that number in the book. Where no symbol as above is shown we have used the microfilm roll number in place of a symbol. If the deceased was black we used a capital B in parentheses.

With few exceptions the names in the index were taken from microfilmed copies of the original county records. This microfilm is available at the Tennessee State Library & Archives in Nashville.

Note from Sonja: Joseph Beeler, b. 1833, wife (this is not right) Minnie Monroe Beeler. Son of John "Hogskin" Beeler b. 1811. m. 30 June 1830 d. 1881

ALL ANNA SHELTON

Joseph (1833) had brothers and sisters; Peggy Beeler Hendrix, Enoch, Alvis, Vina Beeler Popejoy, Matilda, Emma, John, Isaac, Peter and Winfield. I have a notebook of Beeler-Wolfenbarger data, but can't find your John Ely, nor a Wolfenbarger-Needham marriage. Are you sure of the names? I'm sure I've seen a Beeler-Ely connection someplace, but Ely is not a common Tenn. name. Could it be McEly? I have a friend who's doing some checking on Ely for me, and I'll let you know. Got the info on Minnie Monroe Beeler from Florence Dyer Needham. Does that name mean anything to you?

Another note from Sonja: Press Wolfenbarger said Adeline Wolfenbarger (b. 1864) Collins (John L. b. 1840) my husband's gr-grandfather) was his aunt (his mother and Adeline were sisters?) This would mean a Wolfenbarger married another Wolfenbarger. Press' mother was Mindy Wolfenbarger.

Also: Perry Hamilton, son of Jasper Terrill Hamilton and Betsy Beeler ( had 8 children total). Perry died in Oregon. His second marriage was to Minda Wolfenbarger, daughter of Joseph Wolfenbarger and Orpha ~~Needham~~.

INTRODUCTION

Research in Tennessee for the period prior to 1830 poses some difficult problems because no complete census schedules for the state exist before that date. The 1800 census schedules were entirely lost or destroyed, and for 1810 only Rutherford Co. has been saved. The 1820 lists for almost all the eastern counties are missing.

For genealogists seeking county of origin of early settlers the only feasible approach is through the county tax lists, petitions and newspaper accounts. To facilitate this search and simplify the pin-pointing of county of residence we have prepared this index to those early lists. With this "bare bones" information we hope we can send many frustrated ancestor hunters winging on their ways toward the flesh and blood material of which good family histories are made.

This is a single index to 68 county tax lists, petitions, voter lists, and newspaper lists of inhabitants in 34 Tennessee counties. There are about 46,000 entries in all. We believe we have taken all known tax lists into consideration (though not all have been included in the index, since those for years after census schedules are available were not deemed useful and in most cases the transcribing of lists less than 5 years apart would not add significant value to the work).

The earliest list included is from 1787 and the latest 1827. About 2/3 of the state's counties in existence by 1820 are included in one or more lists.

While some tax lists included additional information, such as acreage, number of "polls" etc., there is no data of genealogical value in them other than the name of household head and the county. Since the primary purpose of this book is a directional aid we have omitted this extraneous information.

The index itself is simple enough to follow. You will find the name of the subject followed by a county symbol (see inside front cover) and a date, which represents the year of that particular list.

All of the tax lists are on file at the Tennessee State Library and Archives in Nashville, TN.

Lists represented by this index are as follows:

INTRODUCTION

We have attempted in these two books to set forth the essential data on all early East Tennessee marriages for which records have survived. The area included is outlined on the map on the next page; records published here are for 20 shaded counties. Official ante-bellum marriage records do not exist for the rest of them.

All pre-1861 marriages are set forth here. Where feasible and convenient (primarily because of cutoff dates of the original books) we have also included many later records as well.

The information in the brides book is a duplication of that in the grooms, the difference being in the order in which they appear. Each book is a single area-wide alphabetical listing of the records.

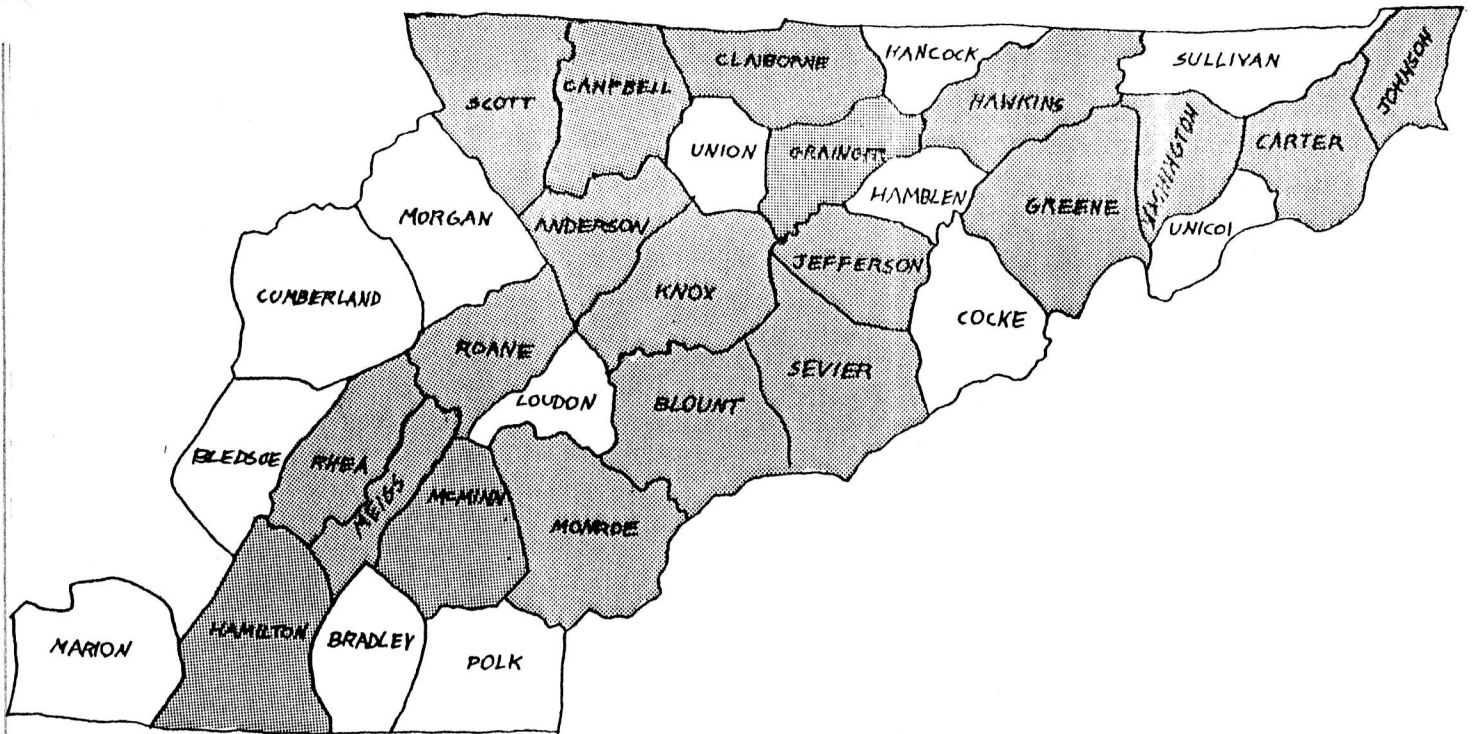

Where two dates appear on an entry, the first one is the date license was issued, the second (in parentheses) the date marriage was solemnized. If only one date, it usually means that the date of execution was the same as the date of license issuance.

It should be remembered that the entries are, in most cases, far from complete; they show names of the celebrants, county and dates, and no more, whereas the original books and the books from which this information was extracted usually contained additional data, much of which can be of inestimable importance to the genealogist. Such data as names of bondsmen, ministers, justices of the peace, churches, etc. is omitted. In some cases age, names of parents, occupations and similar information are to be found with the source material cited in the Bibliography (at end of second volume), or in the original marriage books.

At the end of each entry is a county symbol. Key to the county symbols is on the following page. Immediately before the county symbol may be a B or an * or both. The B is for black or colored; the * means that the source material included additional information of sufficient importance that we urge the researcher to obtain a copy of the source book or microfilm if possible.

Almost all the original marriage books are available on microfilm at The Tennessee State Library and Archives in Nashville. This, of course, is the nearest we can come to "truth" in the records. But it should be remembered that the clerks who entered the data were fallible; glaring errors appear frequently. As in all genealogical quests, certainty or something near it is best obtained through other records that corroborate these.

INTRODUCTION

have attempted in these two books to set forth the essential data on all early East Tennessee marriages for which records have survived. The area included is outlined on the map on the next page; records published here are for 20 shaded counties. Official pre-bellum marriage records do not exist for the rest of them.

Post-1861 marriages are set forth here. Where feasible and convenient (primarily because of cutoff dates of the original books) we have also included many later records as well.

The information in the brides book is a duplication of that in the grooms, the difference being in the order in which they appear. Each book is a single area-wide alphabetical listing of the records.

Where two dates appear on an entry, the first one is the date license was issued, the second (in parentheses) the date marriage was solemnized. If only one date, it usually means that the date of execution is the same as the date of license issuance.

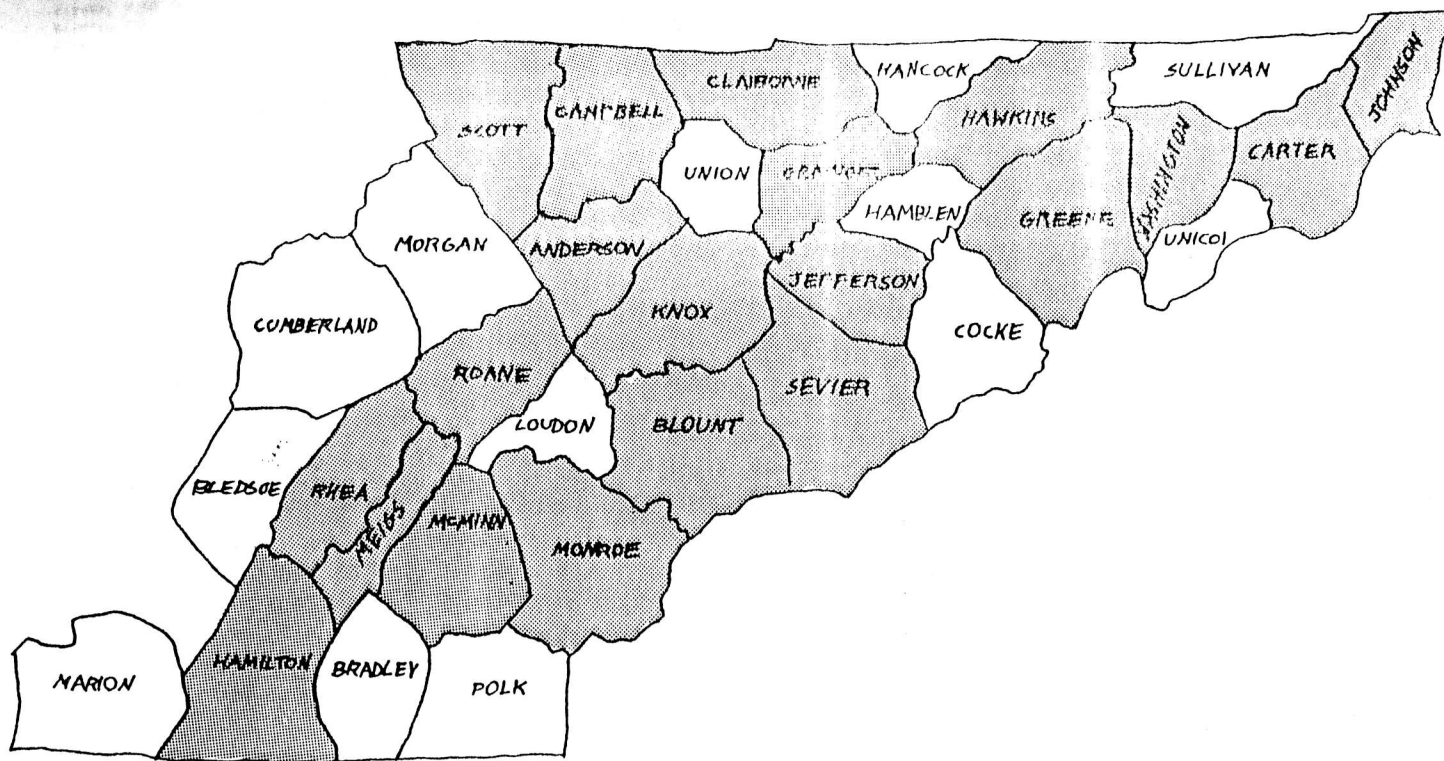

It should be remembered that the entries are, in most cases, far from complete; they show names of the celebrants, county and dates, and no more, whereas the original books and the books from which this information was extracted usually contained additional data, some of which can be of inestimable importance to the genealogist. Such data as names of bondsmen, ministers, justices of the peace, churches, etc. is omitted. In some cases age, names of parents, occupations and similar information are to be found with the source material cited in the Bibliography (at end of second volume), or in the original marriage books.

At the end of each entry is a county symbol. Key to the county symbols is on the following page. Immediately before the county symbol may be a B or an * or both. The B is for black or colored; the * means that the source material included additional information of sufficient importance that we urge the researcher to obtain a copy of the source book or microfilm if possible.

Almost all the original marriage books are available on microfilm at The Tennessee State Library and Archives in Nashville. This, of course, is the nearest we can come to "truth" in the records. But it should be remembered that the clerks who entered the data were fallible; glaring errors appear frequently. As in all genealogical quests, certainty or something near it is best obtained through other records that corroborate these.

yes

VI. Has he given the names of the officers under whom he served, in conformity with the regulations?

XVI. Are the papers authenticated as the regulations direct? no

XVII. Are the seven interrogatories prescribed by the War Department answered satisfactorily? And, if not, which of them is not so answered? 1 2 3 7

EXPLANATORY NOTES.

QUERE V. In a case where the applicant cannot, by reason of the loss of memory, state precisely how long he served, he should amend his declaration by making an affidavit in the following words:
"Personally appeared before me, the undersigned, a Justice of the Peace, &c. A. B. who, being duly sworn, deposes and saith, that, by reason of old age, and the consequent loss of memory, he cannot swear positively as to the precise length of his service, but according to the best of his recollection he served not less than the periods mentioned below, and in the following grades: For _____ year _____ months and _____ days. I served as a _____ For _____ months and _____ days, I served as a _____, and for such service I claim a pension."

It is important in all cases to determine with precision the period for which the applicant served, and the particular rank he held, as the law directs the pension to be paid according to the grade of the pensioner and the length of his service. The use of the phrase about three or four months is too indefinite, and all such qualifying expressions are objectionable.

QUERE XIV. Proof of Service.

In a case where the name of the applicant is not found on the records of the Department, he must prove his service by two credible witnesses, who are required to set forth in their affidavits the time of the claimant's entering the service, and the time and manner of his leaving the same, as well as the regiment, company, and line to which he belonged. The magistrate who may administer the oaths must certify to the credibility of the witnesses, and the official character and signature of the magistrate must be certified by the proper officer, under his seal of office.

QUERE XVI. Mode of authenticating papers.

In every instance where the certificate of the certifying officer who authenticated the papers is not written on the same sheet of paper which contains the affidavit, or other paper authenticated, the certificate must be attached thereto by a piece of tape or narrow ribbon, the end of which must pass under the seal of office of the certifying officer, so as to prevent any paper from being improperly attached to the certificate.

In every case where the Clerk of the Court, or other certifying officer, has no public seal of office, the certificate of a member of Congress, proving the official character and signature of the certifying officer, should be sent with the papers.

He was as young as any although twelve grandchildren and one great-grand-child—little Miss Verneta Mitchell

GOLDEN HARVEST

Mrs. Rebecca Overman, the grand old lady who filled such a wide place in this community during the pioneer days, was called to her reward last Thursday evening at half past six o'clock at the golden age of 87 years, 10 months and 5 days.

Rebecca Spargur, member of a family of 18 children, was born in Highland county, Ohio, February 23, 1818, and was married to Elijah Overman in 1834. They came here in 1861 and settled on the place now owned by F. B. West in the north part of Villisca, and to them were born 13 children, six of whom are living—Asa, Aaron, Tom and Borter Overman, Mrs. C. H. Hall and Mrs. David Stipe. There also survive 40 grandchildren, 65 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild—the son of Sherman Overman of Des Moines. The husband and father, Elijah Overman, who was Villisca's first postmaster, passed away December 20, 1875.

The funeral services of Mrs. Overman were held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock from the M. E. church and the building was crowded with relatives and friends who were present to do the last honor to all that was mortal of one who was a true friend of humanity. The services were conducted by Rev. W. W. Merritt of Red Oak and the remains were buried in the Villisca cemetery, the pall-bearers being six grandsons—Drs. Byron W. and Cushman C. Hall, Wm. F. Stipe, Blaine, Allen and Chas. Overman.

Mrs. Overman's home was her throne and she lovingly ruled her realm. In the family she was all that a wife and mother should be, to her friends she was true, to the sick and suffering she was helpful, for the sorrowing she always had a word of comfort and hope. True it is that this noble old lady has forever left the community, but the impress of her beautiful life is left as an inspiration to those who would consecrate their lives to duty.

Those from a distance who attended the funeral were: Chas. and James Beavers and wives of Decatur county, Iowa; Dr. and Mrs. Byron W. Hall and son Calvin H. of Bennington, Nebraska; Alien Overman of Lincoln, Nebraska; W. F. Stipe of Clarinda; Mr. and Mrs. David Stipe and daughter Blanche of Braddyville; Dr. and Mrs. Chiles of Brooks; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Beckwith and daughter Edna of Clarinda.

Eli McMullen and son Loy have purchased F. O. Johnson & Son's dairy business and outfit with the exception of the cows and will get possession about the first of next month. They have rented the Hyde building on Lower Third avenue which will

The tables were laden with the choicest viands and Mr. Skinner showed the guests how to gladden the heart of the cook by doing full justice to the dinner. It was a happy time and an event long to be remembered, when four generations were represented and joined in doing honor to him so dearly beloved. May he live many years to enjoy their devotion and share with his loved companion, who for over 52 years has stood so faithfully by his side, their ministrations of love.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew will make their home in Lennox where the former is professor of the schools. The groom is a graduate of the Villisca high school and also of the College of Wilmington and the University of South Dakota.

The fourth of the series of lecture course entertainments will be given at the opera house next Saturday evening, January 6. The Cleveland Ladies' Orchestra is under the direction of Alfred Metzendorf, who is him-

CHARLES WADE BEAVERS' TRIP
FROM OHIO TO IOWA WHEN EIGHT YEARS OLD

Notes of the trip taken by CHARLES WADE BEAVERS at the age of eight, from his memory at the age of 78. Written by his daughter ETHEL BEAVERS VAN BUREN.

"I, Charles Wade Beavers, was born near Hillsborough, Highland Co, OH September
15, 1858. My father ANDREW JACKSON
BEAVERS and my mother JANE WADE BEAVERS lived on a farm near my Grandmother
Beavers, whom I remember as a widow,
Grandfather having died before my birth.
I was the sixth child. Six years later my brother ANDREW JACKSON (JACK) and sister ANNA, twins, were born. Anna died at birth. The other brothers and sisters were: JOHN NOBLE (thirteen years older than I), ALMIRA, BURCH, FRANKLIN and MARY JANE, in that order.

"My parents were quite religious and took us every Sunday three miles to Rainborough to the Methodist Church and Sunday School. At the time of the Civil War, the minister refused to preach anything concerning politics, being what was known as a Northern Democrat. This stirred up trouble in the church and he left it and organized a church known as the Christian Union Church. My folks left the old band of followers and went with REV GIVEN into the new church.
They never would allow a deck of cards or a 'Fiddle' in the house, saying the Devil was in them both. Our firewood had to be prepared but none was chopped on Sunday and just as little work was done on that day as possible. I would not be sure, however, that as most of us boys grew up, we did not like to play cards and dance as well as any of the neighborhood young folks, at whose homes
we took active part in both.

"My father wished to go farther west,
but would not leave his mother as long as she lived. She died in May 1866.
Father sold the farm to a man by the name of WASHBURN, made a sale of stock, household goods and crops that summer
and fall and on my 8th birthday,
September 15, we started for Missouri, then considered 'out west'. One of my cousins gave me his little brass bell,
which I still have and want handed down
as a family heirloom.

"Our outfit consisted of a 'Prairie Schooner', a two-horse covered 'hack' and a one-horse covered buggy. The latter Mother drove, keeping baby JACK, a frail child, with her. Her horse was named Sally. Jack's little chair was fastened in the seat of the buggy and strings were tied to the dash board. He amused himself most of the time 'helping drive'. When we would see haystacks, he would say, 'There's hay; let's stop here'. He had soon learned that we had to stop where there was feed for the horses. I remember the team used on the hack were Nancy and Prince. JOHN drove the hack. The rest of the family except Burch rode with him. BURCH drove the Prairie Schooner, which was loaded with trunks, boxes, etc. The hack carried the camp equipment. Father was first,
of course, with one conveyance, then another.

"We camped out much of the time. Mother cooked over a campfire; boiling meat, potatoes, cabbage or whatever we had bought from farms along the road or in the towns we had passed through. What was left from supper was stored under the seat in the hack for lunch the next day. We had cold food at noon, not stopping long, but feeding the horses and letting them rest a while. One night I remember it was raining and we stayed in a country church building surrounded by a graveyard, as was the custom in those days. We children had heard a few ghost stories and we would not venture out of the building after dark.

"Traveling with us was a party of distant relatives of Mother's two widowed sisters whose maiden names were MOORE. Aunt LIDIA SPARGUR and Aunt MARY MATHENIA. Also there was Aunt Lidia's widowed daughter MARY ERSKIN and her small son, MILTON SPARGUR and her brother-in-law RUBEN SPARGUR, quite a young fellow, also PETE MOORE, a nephew of the older ladies. They were all traveling in a covered wagon with one team. Part of the group were walking most of the time to relieve the horses of part of their burden. Fortunately, the weather was fine most of the time
and we did not have much mud to contend with.

"Sister ALMIRA had married the year
before and she and her husband GEORGE W SAMS accompanied us with their own team
and wagon.

"Another family by the name of OVERTURF joined us at Miami, OH and some place
along the road we were joined by a man named SIMMONS riding a saddle horse and leading a young stallion. I do not remember where he left the party, but OVERTURFS who had six children, left us

② in western Illinois, where they had relatives. I remember one night when they were still with us, we obtained permission to camp in a pasture. There was good pasture for the horses and good water. The pasture was fenced with what was known as a 'stake and rider' fence, the poles laid zigzag, bound together by the stake and rider. This fence is also called a 'worm' fence and is usually about five poles high with narrow openings between the poles. Some of these fences still exist in Missouri and Arkansas and sometimes they are built in the mountains to make enclosures for horses used in hunting. The men and boys were out gathering firewood when MR. OVERTURE appeared, shouting, 'Look what I found'.

"In his arms he was carrying a little fawn, which he had found fast between two rails of the fence. Just then the little deer began to seek its freedom, pawing and striking with its sharp little hoofs. It tore his shirt to strings, inflicting deep scratches on his arms and chest. He soon decided he was getting the worst of the conflict and turned it loose. That time it found a wider place in the fence and was gone on its way, no doubt soon reunited with its mother, as they call their young similar to a cow calling her calf.

"Father had a sister SUSAN BULL living in Wayne County, Iowa and another sister BETTY RIDDLE, a brother JAMES and the family of his brother JOE, deceased, who all lived close together near Garden Grove, Decatur County, IA.

"Aunt SUSAN's husband CAL (McCALL) had written Father to bring him a young hound to hunt coyotes, which were very numerous in those parts at that time. We had the hound chained to the rear axle of the hack and the farmers' dogs along the way who came out to the outfit hunting trouble found it. Even chained, he could whip them until they were glad to get out of his reach. One day we forded a stream and stopped to let the horses drink. When we started on, his tail was caught under the wheel and perhaps running over a rock, part of his tail was cut off. It bled quite a lot. Some of us who were walking saw drops of blood in the road and so discovered what had happened. There is a plant which grows wild in that part of the country called a 'puff ball'. It looks like a mushroom and when young can be cooked like mushrooms. When dry, the 'ball' is full of a brown powder, which is one of the best things known for stopping bleeding. Mother had been carrying a dried puff ball, which she had picked somewhere along the road. Some of the powder was applied to the bobtailed hound and we were soon calling him 'Bob'.

"We kids would often get out and walk or run on ahead. Sometimes we would find apples that had rolled under the fence or maybe some one of us crawled through the fence and rolled a few. One day in Indiana we ran on ahead and came to the cross road. We decided to go straight ahead. The team did not come, so we decided to go back and meet them. Mr. SIMMONS was coming up the road on his saddle to overtake us, as they had seen our tracks on the wrong road. He made us run all the way back. After that, when we came to a fork in the road, we waited until the teams came up.

"*This MILT SPARGUR of whom I spoke was a real clown and evenings after we camped, kept up the spirits of the crowd. When he was very young, he had joined the Union Army by running away from home and misrepresenting his age, as many boys did, in the excitement of the Civil War. While in camp, before he saw active service, he took typhoid fever and lay at the point of death for some time with little care and poor equipment for caring for the sick. He lay on a hard bed or on a plank and developed a running sore on one leg, which drew the knee up to the body and he was very lame, but always cheerful. The Army turned him over to the 'Sisters of Charity'. They found something amongst his possessions which gave a clue to his home address and after corresponding with the Postmaster in his home town, he was identified and his mother's brother THOMAS MOORE went to some distant point, where I have forgotten, and brought him home. They worked with his leg and finally got it drawn down, so he could manage to walk with a cane. The evenings were getting cool and we would have a campfire at night. He sometimes would play his violin. If it was not handy, he would take his cane and a stick and pretend to be playing the violin and he would sing and make faces, much to the amusement of us children and the younger members of the party.

"My mother had a sister BETTY WADE who married ALLEN SPARGUR. They operated the Spargur Mill at Rocky Fork of Paint Creek near the old home. She also had a sister SALLY whose married name was WOLF. Her son GEORGE WOLF visited us after we settled in Iowa. When he and I were young men, my mother could trace the 'Kinship' of the SPARGUR, MOORE and WADE families for several generations, but we did not make notes of it and now regret we did not pay more attention to family history.

"When we reached the Mississippi River to cross into Iowa, the river was high and a mile and a quarter across to be made by ferry boat. There was so much ice the ferry man thought it best to wait until the next day. Some of us slept in the wagon and some on the floor of the ferry man's house. I so remember that crossing and how scared I was, but did not remember the place; however, sister MARY says it was Keokuk, Iowa where we landed in Iowa.

"It started to rain and by evening turned to snow. We stopped at a farm house where they had big cattle sheds where we put the horses and slept on the floor of the house. The farmer's name was JIM JACKSON. We were paying for our accommodations and Mother cooked breakfast on the kitchen stove. MRS JACKSON cooked some sauerkraut for their breakfast and Mother, being very fond of kraut, asked to buy 20 cents worth. The barrel was on the back porch and was frozen so MRS JACKSON went and chopped her out some. When she put it on the stove and it thawed out, it was mostly water. That was too much for Mother, for besides being fond of kraut, she was also Scotch. Several years later, after we were settled in southwestern Iowa, this family of JACKSONs moved to Page County, living some distance away, but Mother never cared to renew their acquaintance.

"When we arrived in Decatur County, it was getting late in the fall and Uncle JIM had built a new house that year so they persuaded us to stay there that winter and live in their old log house. The SPARGURS and MOORES went on to Page and Montgomery counties where some relatives of theirs lived (and ours lived also).

"After a few weeks Uncle CAL wanted Father and Uncle JIM to come over and they would take the hound, 'Bob', and go coyote hunting. It was about ten miles to Uncle Cal's, arrangements were made and they went. They soon scared up a bunch of coyotes and the hound, who was no doubt homesick and lonely, followed them off and would not come back when they called him. Someone later shot him. We children had become quite attached to him and felt very badly about it.

"Prior to leaving Ohio Father had bought a 'Soldiers Script' for 80 acres of land in Sullivan County, Missouri (near Harrisonville, I believe), and that was where they had started for. There was quite a lot of trouble in Missouri following the Civil War. Father had cousins in Page and Montgomery counties and in the winter, he and his son-in-law, GEORGE SAMS made a trip to visit these cousins. They fell so in love with the country, they both bought land there. George bought 40 acres from a man by the name of COFFMAN, Father traded the 'Soldier Script' to JOHN IMCHACO on 320 acres, which had 160 acres which was in cultivation, the rest in timber land running down to the West Nodaway River.

"On Dec 6 that winter in Decatur County ALMIRA and GEORGE's son JAMES was born. He was named James Given, James for Uncle Jim and Given for the minister in Ohio. MRS BAKER was the mid-wife who took care of ALMIRA. JACK didn't like the new baby. He called him 'Black Baby, Baker' and wanted MRS BAKER to take him away.

"About Mar 1 we started for our new home in Page County. The roads were starting to thaw out and it was hard traveling. Uncle JIM took a saddle horse and went with us. GEORGE had a balky horse in his team and when she came to a hard pull, she had to have help, a team had to be taken off another rig and help them up the hill. After the second or third time she pulled that, Uncle Jim said, 'Wait a minute', he rode ahead of her and shouted 'Getup' and away they went. After that he helped her up all the hills the same way.

"When we reached our new home, IMCHACOS had not moved out of the house and wanted to wait until the roads were a little better, so we stayed a while at Uncle SELL BEAVERS' who really was a cousin of father. Mr. Imchaco took in the hack we had driven from Ohio at $150 on the land and they departed from Iowa about Mar 15th.

"Father traded an old cap and ball pistol to SAM RODABAUGH for another lynch pin wagon on a narrow tread; the one we brought from Ohio was wide tread. We had a grease bucket hanging on the rear axle and all rigs were greased everyday I believe. A lynch pin held the wheel on instead of a nut which was on some wagons. We used the old 'Prairie Schooner' for a long wagon on the farm."

PIONEERING CONTINUED
BY Ethel Van Buren

"CHARLES WADE BEAVERS and his family came to Wyoming in 1900. He homesteaded in 1902 near Lake DeSmet. Mrs. Beavers 'held down' the homestead while he drove the horse-drawn stage between Buffalo and Sheridan. NEWTON and WOODSIDE were the mail contractors. Probably about 1910 was the year they began using autos instead of horses on the mail route.

"In 1919 the Beavers sold the homestead and moved to Story, where MRS BEAVERS died in 1936. She was the founder of the Story Community Club in 1920. This club is now called the Story Women's Club. Mr. Beavers died in April, 1947, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred (Ethel) Van Buren in Sheridan."
