CASTLE SITE DEDICATION

At last there is a Wolfensberger homeland. Seven hundred years after a fortress was first built on the Wolfensberg, a scenic timber-covered hill topped by three peaks, a memorial was unveiled September 28, 2001, to mark the site where our family originated. The memorial is the culmination of nearly three years effort by American and Swiss members of the Wolfensberger Family Association who partnered with Swiss organizations to recognize the earliest known home of the family. A two-ton stone hauled from the bed of the nearby Toess River is today fitted out with plaques in English and German noting that the hilltop site is the first known home of the family. It is now part of a hiking path and picnic area contributed by the town government of Bauma, its tourist information bureau, and a cantonal hiking association. Today, the Wolfensberger memorial is a prime attraction for any descendant who tours the Zurich region. Take the train or drive to Bauma, then head to the town's tourist information bureau, the Verkehrsverein, located in Bauma's town hall, the Gemeindehaus. There, ask for English-language driving directions to the site. Come for lunch in good weather, and fix a meal on-site. Cook your meal over a grill and sit down to enjoy the wooded scenery of the Wolfensberg, the hill that gave the family its name.

WFA President Robert J. Wolfenbarger of Summit, NJ addresses the group assembled at the dedication of the stone marker placed by the Association near Bauma, Switzerland at the site of the Wolfberg castle where the Wolfensberger family originated. The marker, set in a camping area, displays bronze plaques in both German and English

In September, some 90 family members gathered on the wooded hilltop to dedicate the memorial to the Wolfensberger family - past, present and future. The dedication marked the first reunion of Swiss and American relatives. "We came together," said WFA Board members Max Wolfensberger of Switzerland, "because you, our American cousins, wanted to pay tribute to our common ancestors who came from this hill and the surrounding region.

Marlis Jucker, vice-pres. of the Bauma council, who represents the residents of this Canton Zurich community of nearly 5,000, welcomed the crowd, giving a brief history of the community, which was founded in the 17th century. And in a prayer at the dedication of the memorial, Heribert Wolfensberger, reminded the audience that, "We stand on this hill, on which - 700 years ago - the fortress of the first nobles of the Wolfensberger family was built." WFA President Bob Wolfenbarger told the audience that, "You should remember that until the early Sixties, those of us interested in tracing our ancestry believed our family was German." He recalled the search for his family's origins that brought him to Switzerland in 1962, where he discovered Swiss relatives. "From then on, our family celebrated the fact that our roots were Swiss...and that the family traced its roots to medieval Canton Zurich."

Wolfenbarger conveyed the greetings of Larry Jones, who founded the Wolfensberger Family Association in 1994, who was unable to attend the dedicaion. "He asked me to give you his personal regrets and is hope that he can soon see the monument he inspired." The dedication had more than a few touches of color and Swiss history. A red-and-white Swiss flag was draped over the memorial stone as the audience gathered. During the ceremony, the flag was whisked away to reveal the stone and its plaques. A pair of men garbed in medieval blue-and-white cantonal militia uniforms stood guard over the stone. As the audience walked up the hiking path from the roadside, one of the guards pounded his drum summoning volunteers to defend the fortress. The other stood with medieval halbert at the ready. Following the memorial unveiling, the crowd boarded buses to be driven to Rapperswil for a luncheon here, where the medieval counts of Rapperswil, the overlords of the Wolfensberger nobility, lived, the American and Swiss cousns enjoyed luncheon together at tables mixing diners of the two nations In the hotel dining room, American, Swiss and Wolfensberger flags hung from th wall, giving an international flavor to the event. In the wake of the terrorist attacks on New York City and Washington, several Americans changed their travel plans. Even so, over 20 Americans came from as far as Washington State and California to participate in the event. The largest family group to participate was the seven members of the family of WFA Board Member Bill Wolfinbarger of Palo Alto, Calif., and his wife, Gerry. Among others were David and Kathleen Wolfersberger of St. Louis, Mo., and their daughter, Cheryl; Bill and Marta Spargur of Palmdale, Calif.; Robert Lee Wolfenbarger of Knoxville, Tenn.; Daniel C. Wolfenbarger of Spanaway, Wash.; and Barbara J. Jackson of Norfolk, Nebr. RJW

At left, WFA Pres. Bob Wolfenbarger visits with Marlis Jucker, V-P of the Bauma Council at the Dedication ceremonies. Mrs. Jucker welcomed the group and gave a brief history of the area.

DEDICATOION PRAYER

Heribert Wolfensberger, a respected lay minister, gave a prayer at the dedication of the memorial stone on September 28, 2001. He and his wife were also hosts of the American guests at the luncheon in Rapperswil after the dedication. The text of the prayer follows:
Almighty God, It is a great joy and privilege for all of us to stand here today to commemorate our forefathers in a prayer. Let us remember what is written in Psalm 91: "He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord: He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in Him will I trust." We can therefore gather for these solemn moments with thankful hearts. We stand on this hill on which - 700 years ago - the fortress of the first nobles of the Wolfensberger family was built. After some time, their fortress, constructed by hand, did crumble.
But you, O God, are an eternal forgress who will never fail and in whom we can always trust. Grant us therefore that we may go forward as a family in your spirit of truth, to live to your honor, evermore.
We ask this in Jesus'. our savior's. name. Amen

EDITOR'S NOTE: For the information of our members, we are publishing below the Policies that guide the Board of Directors of the Wolfensberger Family Association. On April 14, 2001, at a regular Board meeting, the Board adopted some changes in the WFA Policy to reflect the organization of the Board of Directors. All of those involved in the activities of the WFA are mindful of these policies as we conduct the affairs of the WFA and make every effort to see that the WFA remains true to its mission; that is to be a non-profit group dedicated to the preservation of the Wolfensberger family heritage.

Directions to the Memorial

by Bob Wolfenbarger

You can get English-language driving directions to the memorial site at Bauma's Verkehrsverein, the local tourist information bureau, during weekdays. In Bauma, ask directions to the town hall, the Gemeindehaus. The Verkehrsverein office for tourist is open from 8:30 to 11:30 AM and 2:00 to 4:00 PM. In Switzerland, the Verkehrsverein's local telephone number is 052 397 10 10.

The Wolfensberger memorial is not far from the business section of Bauma, but it is not close enough to reach by hiking unless you are especially robust. Typically, you would begin at (1) the Bauma Town Hall or Gemeindehaus. A roadside sign (2) points in the direction of the Wolfensberg. Roadside parking is at (3), where a hiking path will take you to the hilltop site. The memorial stone, picnic area, and fireplace are located at (4).

WFA Medallions

At the meeting of the WFA Board of Directors on September 22, 2001, a decision was made to make available to our members a WFA Medallion. The purpose of these medallions will be to identify our deceased ancestors as descendants of the Wolfensberger family. This medallion will be the same size and shape as our family badges. It will have a flat back for attaching to headstones. It will be made of pewter metal. The method of attaching to headstone will be an adhesive. The name of the recommended adhesive will be provided later. There are a number of other uses for these medallions as desired by the individual obtaining them. You may start now to make your wishes known as to the number of medallions desired. Send no money at this time. The maximum cost will vary depending on the quantity ordered. If we have orders for 250, the cost will be no more than $13 each. If we have orders for 100, the cost will be approx. $16 each, for 50, approx. $20 each.

The deadline for ordering is Feb. 1st, 2002. At that time, the quantity will be determined and that will set the cost per medallion. Each person will then be notified of the cost of each and the total cost to that person.. They will be requested to send a check made out to the WFA in that amount and mailed to:

Larry Jones WFA
6400 Ann Arbor Terrace
Oklahoma City, OK 73132

Any questions may be addressed to Larry by postal mail, telephone 405 721-4383 or by e-mail to wolfnsberger@home.com. The checks for the medallions must be received by March 1, 2002 at which time the order with the manufacturer will be placed.
